

Mart Stam Prize 2022

The Mart Stam Prize

The Mart Stam Society, which is the friends' association of the weissensee school of art and design berlin, together with the mart stam foundation for art + design, is inviting entries from graduates from the academic year 2021-22 for the 2022 Mart Stam Prize. The prize consists of an exhibition and a catalogue. The exhibition of the winning entries will take place next spring, and will be curated by Stéphane Bauer.

Selection criteria

The Mart Stam Prize is an award for outstanding final-year assignments (on bachelor's, master's and diploma courses) from all specialist areas of the weissensee school of art and design berlin. The graduates with the best chances are those who convince the jury with the artistic and/or design quality of their work and who, at the same time, tread new paths, come up with surprising solutions and think beyond the boundaries of their particular discipline.

Jury

Dr. Claudia Banz, curator at the Kunstgewerbemuseum Berlin (Berlin Museum of Decorative Arts)
Stéphane Bauer, Head of the Kunstraum Kreuzberg/Bethanien
Dominic Eger Domingos, product designer, Mart Stam Prize 2020
Prof. Kerstin Gottschalk, artist, Mart Stam Prize 2006
Dr. Jenny Graser, curator of contemporary art, Kupferstichkabinett Berlin
Prof. Stefan Koppelkamm, chair of the Mart Stam Society
Dr. Angelika Richter, president of the weissensee school of art berlin

Eligibility

Graduates of the weissensee school of art and design berlin who completed their practical and theoretical examinations between 16 October 2021 and 24 October 2022 and who are able to present corresponding confirmation of this are entitled to apply. The postgraduate assignments of Meisterschüler cannot be submitted. The prize can only be awarded once. A repeat application is not possible. Participation in this competition requires that applicants are prepared to make their work and materials available for the exhibition and the catalogue. The award of the prize obliges the recipient to actively support the preparation of the catalogue and the setting up of the exhibition. As far as possible, the Mart Stam Society will pay compensation for expenses.
